

The Canadian Legal System and God

For the majority of the people in Canada they obey and follow the laws of Canada. There is however two aspects to those who do not wish to follow the laws of Canada they are either Criminals who intend to enrich themselves through harm or those who are against the injustice and draconic aspects of Canadian Law and only seek peace and freedom. It seemed to me that many of the people who led the freedom movement within Canada were in someway associated with Freemasons, CISIS or simply Luciferians in nature. There were a few though that did mean well, but when confronted about teaching things that were false and was leading people into trouble with the legal system, I was simply shunned or ignored.

Much of the Freeman movement was about making use of Laws within the Legal System to counter what people thought as being and were unjust laws in many cases concerning the freedom movement. It became very apparent to me that Canadian Courts were not following the Law in rendering Judgements, but were ignoring the law in many cases to simply stomp out any resistance to the Government run system. In many situations I noticed that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms were completely ignored by the Courts and Police for that matter in order to force doctorial power over the people. Today we see from time to time people still trying to utilize Law as a means to stop some of the draconic laws put in place and for gaining freedom, but in most if not all cases that go to Court few if any actually prevail and win.

It breaks my heart in sadness at times when I see these people fighting in Court to save their Children from being ripped from them or harmed by the system, just because some law says the Government can. There is also a lot of good that is done through the Police and Courts in stopping harm and creating fair play within society. The good happens when one thing is applied to the enforcing and making of law, it is about applying God's (The Hebrew name of our Father in Heaven is Yahuah) ways to doing things. This brings us to the issue why God's ways are not utilized 100% of the time in Canadian Law. Well you see it comes down to the simple truth, who is God? Depending on who you talk to you can get a variety of answers, but there can only be one true God. In the Holy Bible Lord God states that he is the God of gods, King of kings and Yahusha (Yahusah is the true name of Our Father in Heaven Son in as pronounced by his Hebrew Name), states that he is the way, the truth and the life and no one comes to the Father except through me (Yahusha). The Koran clearly says that Allah is a deceiver, thus any deceiver can not be truth in any which way you look at it.

Why knowing who God important in Canadian Law anyways? In many cases swearing in ceremonies of MPs, MLAs and Councillors etc. they add, so help me God, at the end of their oaths. You go to Court and they want you to swear on the Bible to tell the Truth, whole truth and nothing but the truth so help you God. Hmm... In some instances you see people swearing on the Koran and others people opt out of swearing to God at all. But it is always about God, either removing God, changing who the real God is or acknowledging God. Nothing happens without God being acknowledged in some way before anything happens at all in terms of use of force or starting of a Court Case, God is completely interwoven into all aspects of the Canadian Legal System that goes before all things that transpire. No one can take Office in Canada without first facing the Oath of their office which is to use their free will to either acknowledge God or reject God from their Oath. How high people go into service within the Government of those who acknowledge God in their Oath versus those that don't I am not sure, but it would be interesting to see how that plays out.

I will mention that the over arching aspect to God in the Canadian Law. At the start of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms it states the following:

Whereas Canada is founded upon principles that recognize the supremacy of God and the rule of law:

Not being a Lawyer I cannot interpret this Legalese for you, but I can tell you what it says in English as you can too. Err yes, it is written in a language called Legalese not English. What you are looking at is a completely foreign language that only Lawyers are allowed to Interpret. Why?!? The law is privately owned by BAR that being Temple Bar in the City of London which Canadian Courts are merely a franchise of. In fact Canadian Courts do not reside within Canada at all, they are indeed ships afloat at Sea upon which the Lawyers (Pirates) are allowed to plunder all other ships they find at Sea according to their Salvage Laws. What they plunder is human beings registered as chattel property via their Birth Certificates. Further anyone they find at Sea that makes use of their laws to defend themselves, is submitting themselves to the Jurisdiction of the Court of the Country which is attached to the BAR, which is pretty much every Country in the "World".

This brings us back to defining who God actually is within the Canadian Legal System. God is not actually defined anywhere in the Legal System. However all Law is the private Property of the BAR, which only Lawyers are allowed to draft and interpret. Notice how many Members of Parliament and MLAs etc. are Lawyers. You see the BAR is actually owned and controlled through the Vatican and it is the Pope or perhaps more accurately the Black Pope that controls all of it. The supreme law within the system is Canon Law written by the Vatican. It might surprise many, but the Pope takes the Title Vicar of Christ, which means in Place of Christ. In actuality, Popes of the past have claimed to be God and have Usurped Yahusha Christ Throne on earth. No Pope has ever rescinded or denied statements of any other Popes as the Clergy is viewed as infallible by the Catholic Church, meaning they are omnipotent in terms of what they can do in the world, because they see themselves as God. Notice how Catholic Priests are addressed as Father? Yahusha said no one comes to the Father except through me. It is complete Blasphemy against God. However many Christians today are connected to the Catholic Church and either have no understanding what they are involved in or support the Catholic Church as their only means of getting into Heaven and think they would never be lied too by who they perceive as holy men in their Church.

Let's face it, if you commit a sin such as convicting an innocent person to prison for political reasons etc. all you need to do is go to your nearest confession booth to be absolved of your sin, by a priest. You may have to do something like say a prayer and reflect on what you have done, but the Priest is sworn to secrecy and your secret is safe with the Priest. So there you go, God (Pope) forgives you of all the sins you might have to do, including killing others in order to ensure the slaves (Chattel Property) upon the Holy See (Sea) are kept in line and do as they are told. In fact because the Clergy is infallible they are kept safe from being charged for any crimes they may commit including pedophilia and mass murder. This has been the way for Centuries.

If you notice on your deed for your house you are not listed as the "Owner" of the house, but rather they Tenant in most parts or "Renter" etc., but never the Owner. Did you not work hard to pay for your house? Did you not trade your hard earned money for your house? So why would you not be listed as the Owner of your house? In fact you are not the owner at all and are made to pay a rental fee (taxes) for owning land and/or housing of any kind. So who actually owns your house? Legally, it is the International Monetary Fund from what I have been reading from some of Judge Anna's work. I am not sure she really even knows, but I think it is the Pope that owns it, through the Holy See/Vatican.

Sadly many people are going to be turned off from this article based upon their Religious beliefs, but many more won't even be interested because they are doing okay. They got their house, their toys, and their kids and have their life style and vacations etc. Many of the working poor are too busy to have a life or any time to focus on this kind of stuff and simply cruse along hoping for better times. Then there are the Criminals, that being the ones not part of the system that are not protected from the system, that are interested, but are usually too swamped in fear and aggression to concentrate long enough to really grasp what I am sharing here. Then there are the few that simply see grave injustices going on around them and want to help or get out from under it as best they can, like me. It is a struggle and no you don't always win, even when you have all the truth on your side. This is a struggle and millions of Christians including Yahusha Christ have died in this struggle. In Ephesians 6:12 it says:

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

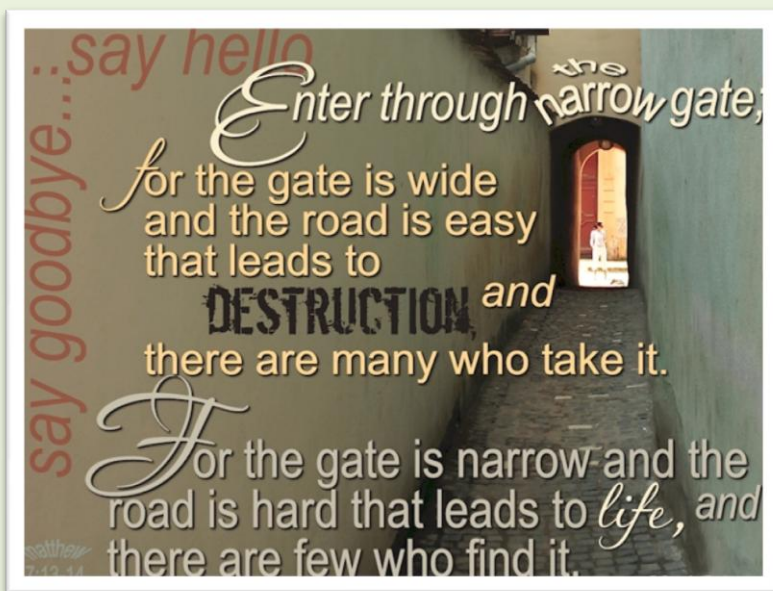

Sadly few people actually follow Yahusha Christ never mind realizing that they are being deceived, much as Eve was beguiled by Serpent in the Garden of Eden, not much has changed in that occurring throughout history and even today. Lets take a look at the Preamble again in the Charter:

Whereas Canada is founded upon principles that recognize the supremacy of God and the rule of law:

Note that it makes use of the word, "Principles". The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms as it is titled is nothing more that a Principality purposely made so we are made to struggle against it. Again some would state that it is full of rights and freedoms which define the foundations of our society, such as the right to enter, remain in and leave Canada or any number of great rights. Let me say this, when someone extends rights and privileges to you such as having a right to drive, that right can be taken away from you by the very same people, when they deem it fit to do so. You are being given laws upon which you shall live your life upon, until the ruling class decide otherwise for any reason they deem fit, not you. Thus if a Police Officer decides that they want you in Jail, they can trump up charges and throw you in Jail or take your Car, House, Children and anything else they want to do to you, irregardless what the law says or doesn't say. Doesn't say? Well yes, section 32 of the Charter along with Section 52 of the Charter states that all laws in Canada only apply to Government to paraphrase it. Thus they are not accountable to the Government in any ways for what they do to you, because you happen to disagree with them. Ask Dean Clifford a Freeman on the Land proponent; see how things are going for him and many others for that matter.

What I am saying here is that you are involved in a Spiritual War against Satan being played out on the earth in various ways. Until you get your head wrapped around that, you won't grasp the simple truth of what you are involved in, if you have gotten this far and I pat you on the back for those of you who have. Ultimately this struggle we are involved in is not about what laws are just or unjust as that is merely a smoke screen to cover and obfuscate the truth. Everything that happens within all Legal Systems in the world are designed to hide the truth from you, unless you know and stand for the truth then everything they try to do to you collapses legally upon them. Then it comes down to if they decide that they directly want to cause you harm or take your property irregardless what the Law says in their Legal System. At this point you are either on your own or you have one more ace up your sleeve, that being that you are doing what you are doing because you are doing God's will and you are a true believer in Yahusha Christ as your Lord and Saviour. Without God there is only you and them. If you have God then you have no worries no matter what they may do. But for them, they will cause curses to come upon them. They might be forgiven if they turn to Yahusha Christ themselves later in life, but some sins are not forgiven, those that go against the Holy Spirit.

Further because of their sins against you and ultimately God the creator of all that exists, including them that harm you I might add, they are buying their one way ticket to Hell and destruction after they die. That being said, I pray for them and love them for no one deserves to go to such a horrible place such as Hell, but it is their choice. They are doing what they are doing out of any myriad of reasons, but mainly they are following Satan and his minions. Satan knows he is going to Hell, Yahusha has already won this battle, it is only a matter of when our Father in Heaven brings this all to an end, and he knoweth that he have but a short time. Satan ultimately wants souls. He wants to drag you into Hell with him causing as much anguish to God over loosing his children, his creation of image and likeness of himself to this horrible evil creature.

Thus the struggle ultimately is not about what is just or unjust in terms of law, but it is ultimately about loving your neighbour as yourself that would also include your enemies, who are confounded and confused from trying to cause you harm, because that is what God does them. If you read through the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and then read through the Canadian Criminal Code, you will find so many laws that are in complete conflict with the Charter, yet nothing is being done to remove them. There are a lot of examples in the Bible where the Children of Israel, were punished by God for engaging in Baal Worship and Idolatry for the most part. Today looking around I see Canada full idolatry from the Catholic Church, Islam, Sports and Celebrities to outright Paganism and Satanism. Paganism is actually the hidden part of the Catholic Church, where Yahusha, Mary and Saints are replaced and by Nimrod, Isis and evil Clergy in general. Worshiping dead Popes as Saints is blasphemy. For a price anyone can be Canonized and made into a Saint, think it is about $750,000 now. The point is that God puts people into slavery and oppression when the refuse to follow him and sin against him. Baal worship for example is huge in Canada. Really? Baal worship involves sacrificing children, so how many children go missing in Canada each year as also adults? For those who think that Abortion is okay, it is simply a form of Baal worship in God's eyes. Thou shall not kill. Can I make it any plainer? You see Constantine Constanople wanted to make Christianity Legal, mainly because they could not stop it, so they sought to subvert it. What was done at the Council of Nicea was to overlay Paganism upon Christianity and make the Roman Catholic Church the One Universal Church of God, with their God Pope as the head of it, not Yahusha Christ.

So today in Canada you see Paganism celebrated as overlay against Christianity. You see players pray to Lord before a Football game for example hoping for favour in winning the game. Yet the star players worshiped as idols. Wayne Gretzky even has a statue of metal made of himself as a tribute to his greatness, labelled the Great One. Thou shall make graven image...

I could go on for a long time about the idolatry and paganism that goes on in Canada, never mind the entire world, but at the heart of it lies the fact that people are turning away from God and following gods to gain power over others. God is about righteousness and love. There can be no fiction within truth and there can be no hate within love. Man made laws are formed to instil power to the few at the expense of the many and the foundation behind it all is Satan. They worship Lucifer and many leaders seem to make their appearance at the Bilderberg Group and Bohemian Grove. The Shadow Government in Canada dictates all that happens to the "Law Makers". Seems to me that Canada has a Privy Council which must be consulted for advice on anything that goes on within the making of Laws or decisions about Canada in General, which brings us to the Governor General. If the MPs are elected to represent the people of Canada, then why is it that a Governor General who remains outside of all Law, gets to review and make any bill brought forward into law by giving it Royal Ascent? Thus this non elected person dictates to all Canadians what Laws will be on the books and which ones won't. This chain of command goes all the way back to the Vatican to the Pope.

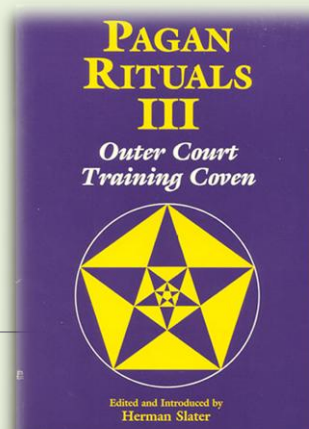

For me the only way that I have found that seems to work is to simply follow God and his will. I can't begin to tell you how much I love our Father in Heaven, Yahusha Christ and the Holy Spirit, who protects me and guides me to this, but it is a love that transcends words for he has always been there, I just needed to choose him and follow him. It is easy to choose to follow, but it is much harder not to sin and to love others. It is a matter of picking up your cross and taking the lashings, hurt and humiliation for simply standing for the truth and God. I have come to realize that many people actually hate God and rather go to a Church were they are forgiven by man or told that it rich pastors will alleviate them of all the work that they are suppose to do in helping the poor etc. It is a total surrender to Yahusha Christ to follow him and most people have a hard time with that. The path to Heaven is narrow and few will find it, Yahusha told us. Based on what I see happening in the world today, I would say that is true. Many are deceived into following Lucifer and very few even have read the Bible as many Catholics are refrained by the Priesthood from reading the Bible. Most are happy with a sermon once a week, month, year or special occasions, but it seems few ever read the Bible. My only question to them is this. If you are going to spend an eternity with God, perhaps should you not read his word to get to know him and what he wants of us? But that is it isn't it as Alistair Crowley said once, Do as though wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

I think Alistair pretty much summed up what the opposite of love is there. Loving others can be very hard to do at first as we are conditioned to follow our own heart and not the will of our Father in Heaven. Self love in terms of self esteem is important, but we gain that out of our love for others as what we put out we get back. Growing up I was tormented everyday by the other kids for I wasn't very smart and mainly I stood for the truth. If someone did something bad to someone else or caused harm to property etc. I felt I could not live with myself and ratted them out. Of course this didn't go over well and I was skinny and did not have good looks nor have any strong athletic abilities, perfect for being made fun of and picked on. Perhaps going through all this caused me to withdraw into my own life and forgo having the skills or desire to form relationships with others. It seems the story of my life, that I am always betrayed when trying to form friendships, mostly because I stand for the truth I think and many don't or won't. Just look at the divorce rates and you get an idea how much people really love and cherish others until death do them part.

I should mention one thing about Oaths. Oaths are actually a sin in God's eyes. We were told by Yahusha that we should make our yeahs yeah and our nays nay. He expressly told us not to take on oaths. This is because Oaths imply accountability by man for not telling the Truth rather than God, who ultimately we all answer too. Vows are different and those God keeps. In fact Yahusha made it very clear that if you divorce someone you are not allowed to remarry until one you first married dies, death does us part. It is a vow and God holds them as absolute. The Legal System in Canada is very biased towards women over men. If you have children it doesn't matter what prenup made, the woman gets the house, the kids, the car and most if not all money with the man making payments out of his paycheque, which he typically barely afford to do until the kids are of 18 years of age. Then we are talking about alimony and lawyers fees. A divorce in Canada is a complete rape of the man in terms of their ability to defend themselves and provide for themselves. This is done primarily I believe in the Pagan courts viewing women as something that men ought to worship as a goddess as they can bring forth life. Hence when they want to destroy a culture they kill the men and the children then rape the women and brainwash their children into believing whatever they want them to believe or they are removed from society.

I appreciate the work Judge Anna has done and I think that Common Law has a basis of how God wanted us to run things. However Common Law is yet another rejection of God even though in Common Law they acknowledge God in their Oaths. In truth it is another form of rejecting God and going against his will. Anna has made inroads with the Vatican to bring about fairness and justice within the monetary and Legal System as a whole. My feeling is that you don't make any deals with the devil if you can simply access Gods will through his word. There are many who are falling for the New Age/Golden Age utopia that the NWO will be defeated and Consciousness will prevail and all will be good then. This line of thinking comes from Theosophy and it is actually what the NWO is suppose to morph into, once they destroy 95% of the world's population, which of course needs to be done to save Gaia from being destroyed due to harmful Carbon being released by man's activities on the earth, never mind the extraction of resources etc. The Swissindo move with the UN to reset world currency and usher in a new gold backed currency is also being pushed, which is based in Pagan beliefs of Gaia as well. It is still simply a trap to entice people to believe that they are free and can go against God and do as thou wilt so long as you don't harm anyone. It is also focused on having a One World Religion as they see God's way as evil? If you never followed God's way to begin with how do you know if it is evil or not?

Yahusha did not bring us Religion he brought us the way. Those that follow Yahusha Christ are not Christians they are merely followers of Yahusha Christ or the way of Yahusha Christ. You see God gave Yahusha Christ all authority and power in heaven and on earth. There is no other authority than our creator Yahusha Christ. What these rulers seek to do is to Obfuscate the truth of who actually has all authority and subvert all the laws within his authority. It may not be legal today for someone to go shoot someone because of how they might have their hair cut, but make a law that says it is the law that you must kill someone with an odd haircut and it is now legal to do so. Is that morally right? In terms of law, the only morality held within it is those who make it. So much for Canada being founded upon the Principles of God eh?

God's direct statement to all was that he is their creator and in Genesis 1:26-28 he tells us that he wants man, meaning all of us, to have dominion over all the earth. When man opts to hold dominion over another man, he/she takes away the primary will of God that man shall have dominion over all the earth. It simply means that we are all equal. The only laws we are to follow are those which Yahusha Christ himself asked of us to follow, mainly being to love one another and our Father in Heaven. It is only through love that we fulfill all the law. We are guided through he Holy Spirit and his word. Yahusha Christ is the only true authority on earth. For those that break the laws and sin before God they pay a price for doing so in terms of aligning themselves with Satan rather than God. Our free will gives us the choice to follow God, who is love or Satan who is evil and hates humanity and will destroy those who are not with God one way or another. If you open your eyes will see this played out over and over again. As much as the rulers want to harm Christians and obfuscate the truth, they only hurt themselves in the end as those they kill go to Heaven to be with God and they go to Hell and see who well that works out for them.

Ultimately we are here for a short time and we are just passing through. Is it that hard to choose to do what is righteous and true? For many it seems so. It truly makes me sad and feel alone in this world, although there are a few who do speak up and do tell the truth about God and relate his word to our everyday lives. They are my brothers and sisters in Christ and we are among the most hated people on earth, especially in this time it seems. The truth shall set you free, if you truly in your heart seek to find out what it is and then live by it. The wages of sin is death, Yahusha paid a price for your sins so you may be free of Satan, rejecting Yahusha you do at your own peril I think. The Canadian Legal System is set up so that you not only Blasphemy God as you enter it, you reject everything that God stands for and become a piece of chattel property to Satan. It is no wonder why so many people have problems trying to overcome unjust laws within the Canadian Legal System.

I am just giving you an overview of my thoughts on all this today. I could write yet another book on it all since discovering the truth and giving my life over to Yahusha Christ, but if you grasp what I said here, I won't have to write one as you will have the Holy Spirit within you showing you and guiding you into all things. I hope you enjoyed this article. God Bless You.
